The News In Brief

A REAL COMPLIMENT
CHICAGO—Thurgood Marshall, Chief Counsel of the NAACP, recently told a meeting of the Pinko American Veterans Committee's national planning board in Chicago that "The only areas where (desegregation) progress has not been made are where Citizens' Councils or other groups have been vocal and active."

URGES MONGRELIZING
NEW YORK — Reverend J. E. Davey, a Presbyterian minister, is quoted in Jet magazine as advising the General Assembly of the church in Ireland that intermarriage between Whites and Negroes "on an immense scale" would solve the color problem. He added, "People who condemn others for intermarrying are wrong."

SAME OLD HARRY
CHICAGO — Former President Harry S. Truman has been quoted in The Chicago Defender, a Negro newspaper as saying "I forced integration in the Army, Navy and particularly in the Marine Corps." The article also quoted Truman as saying that "the same melting pot that worked up North will solve this problem. Men who associate together in the Army and Navy and work together, learn there is no difference between people. He also called for a FEPC law."

(SEE EDITORIAL, P. 2)
UNITED NATIONS, N. Y.—The Mau Mau "emergency" in Kenya thus far has cost the British government $58.8 million, an unofficial report disclosed here. An estimated cost for 1956-57 has been set at $29.4 million.

FAMOUS LAST WORDS
DETROIT—"There's a change among our Negroes. They don't worry so much any more about whether the White people will accept them. They are saying 'I'll go where I dam please!'" — (Detroit Director of NAACP.)

MIXIECRATS AT WORK
LITTLE ROCK — Winthrop Rockefeller has offered $2.5 million to the Morilton (Ark.) School District for development of a "Model" school system. G. M. Reynolds, president of Rockefeller's Winrock Enterprises, Inc., said that the proposed system would include integration of the races.

"No one in his right mind would set out to build two separate systems under the present laws," he said.

BUNCHE BELLOWS
NEW YORK — Dr. Ralph Bunche, Negro Under-Secretary of the United Nations, said recently racial discrimination in the North is "just as bad" as in the South, although "more subtle."

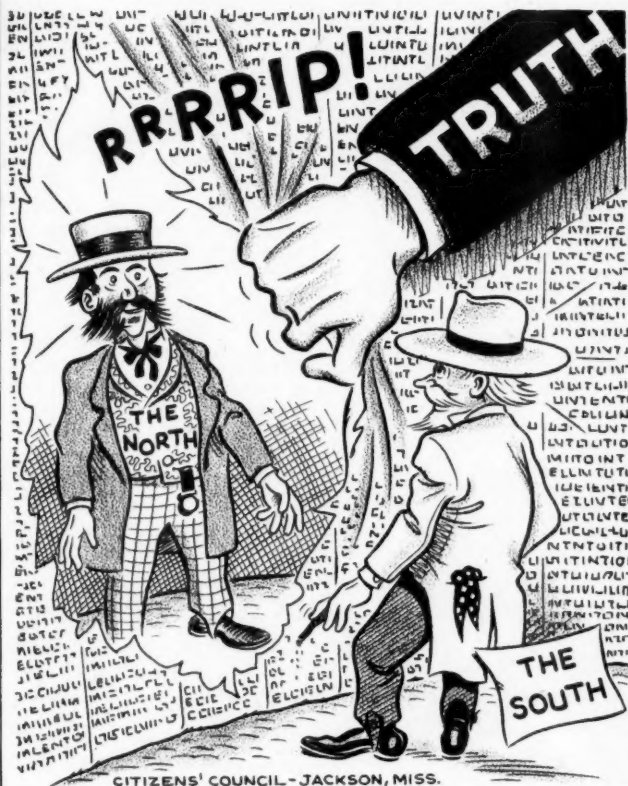

Speaking at the Alabama A & M College commencement exercises, Bunche said that in one generation such discrimination will be "reduced to the nuisance level."

Colored Minister Says Church Must Remain Separate

PITTSBURGH, PA. — A Negro church leader said here recently that the Negro church must retain its separate identity and not die through religious integration. Speaking at the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Conference, Bishop H. B. Shaw, Wilmington, N. C., said the Negro must maintain his individuality as a Christian.

"The Negro church is too essential to the Negro, particularly in this age of civil rights, to be lost in the shuffle of integration," Bishop Shaw declared. "Developed by the Negro in slavery, the church has always given him political guidance, entertainment, cultural development and self-expression."

"Look" Tells Plight Of Negro In North

BY ANTHONY HARRIGAN
Look Magazine devotes 10 pages of its June 26 issue to an article entitled "The Subtle Whip: Segregation in the North" by staff writer George B. Leonard Jr.

The article uses the story of a young Negro family in an all-Negro section of Philadelphia as a point of departure. The second section of the article is made up of photo portraits and thumbnail sketches of five Philadelphia Negroes — a tree surgeon, doctor, public official, clerk and student — to show that Negroes in the North cannot be sure how they will be received by white Northerners. The third and final section blames segregation in the North on real estate operators in the big Northern cities.

HOUSING SITUATION

The following are excerpts from the article:
"The Negro citizen outside of the South looks into the unmasked face of Jim Crow when he tries to find a place to live. Most suburbs are closed to him. When he succeeds in buying a house in white urban neighborhood, the white residents generally move away in a panic... In the Negro ghetto, he often lives a life that is, in fact, more segregated than that of the Negro in the South."

NORTHERN TYPES

"There is the Northerner who signs petitions against segregation and contributes money for the bus strikers of Montgomery, Ala., enjoying a pleasant titillation of self-righteousness. But when a Negro family moves into his neighborhood, he reacts with barren panic, selling his house for a loss — and fleeing."

"Then, there is the Northern 'liberal' who proudly insists that some of his best friends are Negroes. On special occasions, he entertains Negroes in his own home, all the while patting himself on the back. He speaks to Negroes in dulcet tones, as if reading lines from a script."

REAL ESTATE MEN

"They are the men who refuse to sell to Negroes in white areas,

Serves Notice To Negrophiles:

The South Won't Surrender, Says Dixie Spokesman

The South sees nothing un-American or immoral in a racial separation which has existed throughout the nation's history, writes John Temple Graves in the American Mercury Magazine for July. His brilliant and timely article is titled "The South Won't Surrender." That is precisely the entire flavor of his eloquent summary of this region's position in the racial crisis.

Mr. Graves, one of Dixie's best known journalists, is completely familiar with the South's problems and the attitude of her people. He rightly sees the racial question as our peculiar problem, the most difficult and delicate with which any people anywhere have ever had to deal.

MANY-SIDED PROBLEM
"It is a police problem, a biological, a cultural and an economic one," the famous Birmingham columnist writes. "We are passionately certain that it can be served only in terms of that separate but equal philosophy which the Supreme Court upheld through half a century until it forsook precedent, Constitution and common sense in favor of Swedish sociologist Gunnar Myrdal."

The South's firm stand is by no means based on racial aspects alone, Mr. Graves reminds American Mercury readers from coast to coast. We also see much that is American in opposing too much government too far from the (Continued on page 4) causing the very pressures which make a nightmare of a six-family house come true.

"They are the men who engage in a vicious little sport known as 'blockbusting.' The blockbuster arranges for a Negro family to move into a white block. Then he spreads rumors of a black deluge. He quickly buys up, at panic prices, the houses of the remaining whites, and resells them to (Continued on page 4)

UN Plans To Brain-Wash World Youth

Mass Propaganda Campaign To Hit At Racial Pride

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — UNESCO is seeking to enlist teachers in a worldwide "anti-racist campaign," promising manuals to help them root out racial prejudice in children.

UNESCO — The U. N. Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization — discussed the program in its annual report to the U. N. Economic and Social Council, which will meet in Geneva, July 3-Aug. 4.

Infiltrate Schools

The 75-nation agency, independent of the U. N. though affiliated with it, said the manuals would be sent to the 63 existing national commissions for UNESCO, "which will decide whether they should be included in the school curricula of their respective countries."

The U. S. National Commission for UNESCO is among these. It was established by a 1946 law and is supported by the State Department. Its 100 members include 60 representing organizations, 25 representing government and 15 at large.

The UNESCO report said the anti-racist manuals had been prepared by specialists and before being sent out would be submitted to educators' groups in various regions "with a view to their revision and adaptation to local conditions."

The Rules Of The Game

By George W. DeArmond, Jr., Books for America, editor, for The Dan Smoot Report.

During the past 23 years, the federal government — especially the Executive Department — has arrogated to itself a multitude of powers never intended by the authors of the Constitution.

This has been done by arrogant usurpation, often with the blessings of a supine Congress, and sanctioned by a Supreme Court whose members were appointed for the express purpose of reinterpreting the Constitution in order to give these actions the cloak of legality.

And all of this is called "liberalism."

"Liberal" journalists, professors, and politicians continually remind us that the Constitution is a "flexible" document — which is true.

The Constitution could be legally amended to establish a communist or socialist dictatorship in the United States, or could be amended to submerge the United States in a world or regional government: world federalism or Atlantic Union.

But the people who want to socialize the American Republic and subordinate it to a superstate never resort to such legal means, because they know they wouldn't have a chance.

They have been amending our Constitution in an illegal and dishonest way — amending it by interpretation to make it conform with the notions of international socialists.

A game played without hard and fast rules to go by quickly becomes a meaningless melee.

A government operating without a fixed Constitution to go by very rapidly becomes a dictatorship.

The willful "reinterpretation" of fixed charters of government is the essence of lawlessness. It inevitably brings the corruption and amalgamation of all religious faiths, of all standards of morality and decent conduct, and of anything else which stands in the way of revolutionary ambitions.

And this has been happening in America. We have come near to that hypnotic state of self-deception illustrated in George Orwell's 1984. Our leaders talk about peace, when they mean war. They praise the way of freedom, while following the path toward slavery. Most of them are utterly blind to what they are doing. They are suffering from what Professor E. Merrill Root has described as the "liberal hypnosis."

Although we have already had 23 years of lawless government — of disguised, partial, but gradually growing dictatorship — we can regain constitutional government.

The American people must — first of all — regain an understanding of our original Constitution; and — secondly — we must hold politicians to its spirit and letter.

Council In New Jersey Now Shooting For 40,000 Members

Race Riot Arouses Whites; Map Plans To Defend Rights

NEWARK, N. J. — Frank E. Koehler, Newark police officer, was elected president of the Association of Citizens' Councils of Newark on June 7 at a meeting held in the Van Buren Street Public Library.

More than 1,000 Newark citizens turned out in force to protest about the race riot at Newark Schools Stadium on May 24th. Tempers were running high as the white citizens of Newark bitter about the Stadium race riot poured into the meeting room of the library.

Thousands failed to get into the meeting room.

The Association has 5,000 members to date and hopes to have a membership of 40,000 by the end of the year.

Second Class Mail Privileges Authorized at Jackson, Mississippi

There's Just One Answer

These few words are directed primarily to our good Yankee friends.

The combined mail of the Greenwood and Jackson offices has for many months ranged between 350 and 600 letters per week. As organization has increased throughout the South with the resultant channelling of energies into constructive work, the ratio of correspondence originating in northern and western states has mounted.

We feel that we are in a unique position to draw some reasonable conclusions from the tenor and volume and geographic distribution of this mail. One fact towers over all. It is that there exists and is growing a seething resentment in those areas favored by the negro migration from the South, and this resentment is in no wise reflected in the northern press or in northern politics.

Many persons may be surprised to know that hundreds of letters come to us from all over the country with this thought uppermost, "It is up to you Rebels to save us. For heaven's sake keep up the good fight or this country is doomed."

Some writers criticize us for directing our newspaper toward what they consider to be primarily a southern viewpoint. Many others urge us to take off on this or that tangent.

If to some of our Yankee friends we appear to sound like unreconstructed Rebels, they should not be surprised, because we are.

Where tyranny is concerned, whether it be disguised as false religious prophets, as executive orders of the President of the United States, or clothed in judicial robes, we are and always will be unreconstructed Rebels.

To those, including many Citizens' Council members, who would have us going in four dozen different directions all at the same time, we would like to say this:

There is just one answer to all of the ills which beset our society—whether it be the threat of integration in our schools, etc., attacks on miscegenation laws, the growing race-mixing propaganda in all information media, penetration of NAACP in government, a Supreme Court gone berserk, a political system fallen victim to political bossism—all of the utmost seriousness.

That answer is alert, powerful organization. If every American patriot who is deeply disturbed about these things will direct his efforts to building up strength on his side instead of wasting it away in useless worry, total victory will come sooner than you think.

Few of our friends will perceive this truth as readily as will the enemy who will read these lines.

No Comment Necessary

We note with interest an article by Alistair Cooke in the Chicago Sun-Times entitled, "Why Integration Is More Convenient In Border States."

Alistair Cooke is U. S. correspondent for the well known "Liberal" British newspaper, the Manchester Guardian, one of England's most widely read and influential journals. Cooke is an author and is also moderator of the Omnibus television program.

After a rather lengthy account of the "ease" with which integration has been accomplished, in certain border state areas, occurs this very significant passage.

"The children take to it (integration) as a natural thing. Some high school girls mutter about having to take showers after games with colored girls. At school dances the whites voluntarily dance together and the Negroes dance with their own.

"This is bound to be an awkward stage, a phony lull in the ancient battle of the sexes. Two, or 10 or 20 years from now, the first mixed couples will be walking out together, a stage of human progress that the Supreme Court may or may not have anticipated in its masterly euphemism of 'deliberate speed.'"

No editorial comment necessary.

And We Quote-

Socialist Slant

"The race question is but a part of the larger social question. It can be solved in but one way, by the Socialist reconstruction of society."—(Weekly People, Official Organ of the Socialist Labor Party, May 19, 1956.)

UNESCO Baloney

"No convincing evidence has been adduced that race mixture of itself produces biological bad effects. There is, therefore, no biological justification for prohibiting intermarriage between persons of different ethnic groups."—(1950 UNESCO Statement on Race).

Catch 'Em Young

"UNESCO must try to correct many of the errors of home training—the narrow family spirit of the parents may, in fact, not only compromise indirectly, and in some degree, unconsciously, the eventual integration of the child in the human community, but it may also cultivate attitudes running directly counter to the development of international understanding."—(UNESCO School Programs' Statements of Intent).

The Party Line

"I think a study of our proceedings will reveal that the amendments we adopted (on human rights) responded for the most part more to Soviet than to Western promptings."—(Dr. Charles Malik of Lebanon, Chairman of the UN Commission that drafted the UN'S Covenant of Human Rights).

Negroes Clannish

Negroes, when they think politically, says Negro writer Roi Ottley in a Chicago Tribune article, "usually think first in terms of their own group and secondly in terms of the community and the nation."

"They are passionately concerned with a candidate's relation to the Negro problem. No Negro politician can expect to remain popular if he supports a white man who is reputed to be anti-Negro."

"Negro political activities and influence, once confined to the great industrial cities in the East and North, was expanded and extended by wartime migration into the Pacific Coast and into many of the smaller Midwest and Northeastern cities."

"Today, with between 3 and 4 million registered Negro voters in the North and the west, politicians are acutely aware of the Negro voting strength in cities of such states as New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, Missouri and California."

"The Negro vote can be decisive in several Northern states and in many congressional districts. In 16 states with a total of 281 votes in the electoral college, the Negro in a close election, could hold the balance of power, students of the situation say."

Political Battle

Political columnist Doris Fleeson has written that the struggle for Negro votes has begun in earnest.

"GOP appetite for the battle has been whetted by their own and other polls of the Negro voter," she writes.

"Obedient to the virtue of their political necessities, congressional Republicans plan to break their long pocketbook alliance with the Southern conservatives and follow Brownell on civil rights."

"Northern Democrats, who could never get enough Republican votes for civil rights until this year, will furnish the margin to force the administration program."

"Southern Democrats understand political strategy. Their adeptness at that game is what has given them immense power over the years despite their own minority status. They now expect a shrewdly timed onslaught on their prepared positions and they will filibuster."

MASS MURDER

In 1952 the Free Trade Union Committee of the AFL brought to the attention of the UN the appalling fact that Communists in occupied China had committed 14 million political murders. The UN would take no action.

Brainwashing In Florida

There has been a most interesting and revealing poll carried out by the Board of Control for State institutions of higher learning in Florida, as reported by wire services and news magazines.

As indicated by the poll, there is much more to mixing than just sitting together in class rooms. Questions to white students included rooming with negroes, eating with negroes, attending dances with negroes, and swimming with negroes. Questions to negro students were similar regarding white students.

According to the report, negroes, almost unanimously, favored that the races be mixed.

At the all-white University of Florida about 2/3 of the students, 1/3 of the parents, and 4 out of 5 faculty members favored immediate integration of negroes or integration after a period of preparation.

Four out of five faculty members favored integration.

Here we see brought clearly to light one of the most active sources of mixie-cratism. Should anyone be surprised that students lean twice as heavily as their parents toward integration under such influences?

This did not "just happen." Let us remember the large number of widely influential "professional educationists" who have been active in the NAACP for years and years, and the large number - many overlapping - who have made a career out of being dupes for literally hundreds of Communist-fronts.

There is no intention of calling particular attention to the University of Florida. It simply illustrates graphically the results of what is so ably described in Collectivism on the Campus by Professor E. Merrill Root.

The Seeds Of Ignorance

We have a letter from the Editors of Reader's Digest addressed to one of our subscribers, which reads in part as follows.

"..... although we'll be glad to keep your vote for Governor Byrnes' piece in mind, it seems unlikely that a condensation from it will be included in the Digest. We have had a good deal of material on the general subject of segregation and will probably let the subject rest for awhile."

What is the "good deal of material" on the general subject of segregation that has persuaded the Editors of Reader's Digest to "let the subject rest for awhile", to the exclusion of Governor Byrnes' article in U. S. News and World Report, "The Supreme Court Must Be Curbed?"

The Reader's Digest editors proceed to list the material for our subscriber. Now hold on to your seats. Here we go:

1. Approved killing in Mississippi - the Emmett Till case.
2. A statement of William Faulkner's "extremely temperate" position on desegregation.
3. Hodding Carter.

The Reader's Digest's letter is closed as follows: "It is our hope that the Digest will be able to contribute material to such understanding which you will agree, is sorely needed."

We agree that the Editors of Reader's Digest sorely need to understand many things, which they obviously do not.

None are so blind as those who will not see.

It is upon such ignorance as this, whether deliberate or not, that sectional prejudice flourishes.

Nehru Aiding Terrorism

An article in the New York Journal-American states that the British have collected irrefutable evidence linking Prime Minister Nehru of India with the bloody Mau Mau murders of English settlers in Kenya.

It has been disclosed that the "peace maker" of India has a large corps of secret agents working in Kenya encouraging the Mau Maus to continue the slaughter.

According to the article, Nehru also has directed the distribution of hundreds of thousands of pamphlets urging the natives to continue their barbarous warfare against all White settlers. Radio broadcasts of New Delhi are directed mostly at Indians in Kenya telling them to keep the fighting going.

The startling disclosure is made that N. S. Mangat, new president of the Indian Society, has stated that Nehru undoubtedly could get the Mau Maus to desist from murdering White settlers.

The article concludes that the British are fully aware of what is going on but are afraid to call Nehru's hand on his activities for fear of driving him out of the British commonwealth and closer to Communist China.

This equivocation on the part of the British is difficult to understand. They should realize that an enemy is an enemy, and that he is least dangerous when publicly identified as such, and most dangerous when masquerading as a friend.

Now where does this fit into the deadly campaign for Black Supremacy now being relentlessly waged in the United States?

Our readers have only to recall that egghead liberals and certain politicians who place self interest before all else have repeatedly condemned separation of the races in the Southern States because, they say, it offends Nehru.

To such darksome villainy as this they would sacrifice our children.

Along The Battle Front

Trouble In Indiana

The appearance of Negroes recently at a municipal swimming pool in Muncie, Ind., precipitated a two-hour disturbance.

According to The Associated Press, gates to the pool were locked because of the disturbance, and authorities said they had no idea when they would be opened.

City Parks Superintendent Harold Collins said a "large group" of white youths jeered at four Negroes who attempted to use the pool. Negroes never before had used the pool, said Collins.

Terror In Jersey

NEWARK, N. J.—There is increasing tension between whites and negroes in Newark. A contributing circumstance is the fact that lawless negro students are permitted to terrorize white children in predominantly negro schools.

They demand protection money from boys, sexually molest white girls in school hallways, and beat up teachers who object to this extra-curricular activity. The principals of these schools are blame-worthy but the root of the evil lies in the activities and propaganda of the Communist-riden NAACP and related groups notorious for their Communist associations. A continuing Communist aim is the promotion of conflict between races.

One high police authority said recently that the effect of all the yapping about human relations and prejudice is that cops are now afraid to use the force necessary to make an arrest when the criminal happens to be a negro. This could mean an eventual breakdown in law enforcement.

Riot At Stadium

There was a race riot at Newark Schools Stadium during a recent track meet at which negro spectators outnumbered whites about ten to one. Some observers think the fighting which broke out in various parts of the stadium was not spontaneous but planned.

One twelve-year old girl who fled the stadium in terror said many negroes had knives. Some were lifting the dresses of white girls, she said.

A white youth was beaten severely by ten negroes when he objected to their request for money from a frightened white boy. A 17-year old Barringer high School girl who also refused to hand over money was stripped to her bra and beaten by six negro girls. She might have been seriously injured or killed, if she had not been rescued promptly by fellow-students.

The daily press was remiss in its duty in reporting the incident merely as a riot. It was a race riot, and should have been reported as such. One curious effect of left-wing conditioning of editorial thinking is the fact that the word negro is capitalized. The white man, having no one to plead his cause, is dismissed casually in lower case.

Violence In D. C.

The Washington Evening Star has published a report on racial incidents in or near District schools in the last three years. The report involves only juveniles. The report on 34 cases was prepared by Inspector J. E. Winters of the District Police.

Here is the text of the first six offenses listed in the report: "Eastern High School, assault: A white boy, 14, assaulted by two colored boys, 15 and 16. No treatment necessary.

"Stuart Jr. High, assault: A white girl, 16, slapped by unknown colored boy.

"As a result of above, group of white girls from above school, while in snack bar, were threatened by a group of colored boys. No incident took place.

"Stuart Jr. High, assault: A white boy, 13, assaulted by three colored boys, 12, 13, and 14, while playing in playground.

"Elliott Jr. High, indecent exposure: Colored boy, 18 to 20, exposed self to two white girls, 11 and 12, while on playground of above school."

Negroes Veto Mixing

WETUMKA, Okla.—A group of Negro patrons of Douglas separate school in Wetumka recently called on the president and the clerk of the Wetumka board of education to protest integration of Douglas high school next fall.

Members of the delegation told the school board president and clerk that neither the students nor patrons of the school were in favor of integration with white students in the high school. The group had previously discussed the matter with school superintendent Jim Ragland.

Mrs. Ardel Elam, one of the spokesmen for the group, said the Douglass high school students were unhappy at the prospects of going across town to school with white students next year, and that the Negro students had not been happy in nearby schools that were integrated last year. She said Douglass patrons were proud of their school building and the school system as it now stands, and for which they had worked hard to achieve.

Mrs. Elam stressed the fact that the students themselves would not be happy in an integrated high school as they are under their present set-up. She said residents of the area in which Douglass is located are proud of their separate school in a peaceful community.

A Model Action

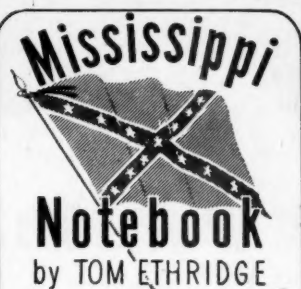

Word is received from the New Orleans Citizens' Council that the United Fund in New Orleans announces that the Urban League of Greater New Orleans will not, in any way, receive funds from the United Fund Campaign, or from the Community Chest, to finance its operations during the year 1957.

United Fund further announces "contributors to the United Fund are assured that none of the money raised will go to the Urban League." It is understood that similar action is underway in several Southern cities.

Sue Wrong Folks

Eight Negro teachers are suing the Moberly School District at Moberly, Missouri. The suit is against the School District and Superintendent of Schools, Carl Henderson, for $32,000 for loss of their jobs when the Moberly schools desegregated.

Several interested Missourians have observed that the Negro teachers have no case against the Moberly schools, but that "they ought to sue the Supreme Court."

"LIBERALS" USING TACTICS OF NAZI "BOOK BURNERS"

Hitler burned all books not consistent with Nazi doctrine in Germany twenty years ago. Today in the United States, racist fanatics—abetted by "liberals"—are forcing major radio and television networks to adopt Hitler's very own tactics.

In our land of supposedly free speech, free thought and free expression, classic and popular songs are being "burned." Nazi censors suppressed Goethe's writings. Networks in today's America are black listing Stephen Foster songs and other favorite tunes.

A NEWS ITEM of current vintage tells how major TV and radio chains have adopted a plan to bar all songs which might be offensive to Negroes. Sometime ago a network "fact-finding" board was established. This group, composed of "liberals and colored leaders," agreed that music should be carefully studied with the view of eliminating any songs not acceptable to Negroes. In some cases, words are "revised" to avoid offending "minorities."

Songs now being suppressed or re-worded include such popular numbers as "Old Black Joe," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Swanee River," "Darktown Strutters Ball," "Missouri Waltz," "Shine," "Basin Street" and many more which make reference to race or color.

COLORED PERSONS who resent being colored are laying the blame for their condition at the wrong doorstep. Their quarrel is with God, rather than Stephen Foster and other songwriters.

In their zeal to save tender vanities, they trample on the rights of others—including millions of network listeners and viewers who love the songs which allegedly offend Negroes. Such a high-handed attitude tends to destroy rather than increase racial good will.

IN FAIRNESS, it is emphasized that Southern radio and television outlets have had no voice in this arbitrary "song burning" decree. Actually, many outraged station managers below the Mason and Dixon Line have protested Negro-philic dictating network radio and television policies, to little or no avail. They are told, more or less politely, to like it or lump it by minority-conscious powers that be.

"Song burning," as now practiced by networks, seems dictatorial and un-American, if not actually un-Constitutional. By what authority do these few self-appointed censors operate? How can they tell Americans that their beloved Stephen Foster can no longer be heard in original form and that many popular songs are now taboo?

UPON WHAT MEAT do these small-calibre Caesars feed, that they can freely suppress and rewrite American music? Why are they so alert to the protests of super-sensitive Negroes, yet deaf to the rising tide of resentment against "Rock-and-Roll," so offensive to adults of intelligent and mature taste?

And where, oh where are those "liberal" bleeding hearts who eternally bellow that no person has a right to force his views upon others? Why their strange silence?

NOT LONG AGO, Congressional investigators discovered many pro-Communist books in libraries maintained overseas by the American government. These libraries were and are part of an expensive campaign to sell foreigners on the American Way of Life. Patriots very sensibly suggested that pro-Red volumes be removed, since they defeated the very purpose of our overseas propaganda program.

Professional "liberals" promptly raised a howl. They called such a suggestion "book burning," "thought control" and "dangerous censorship." They argued that free people should have a free choice of reading matter—even extending to pro-Communist books. The right to read, it was emphasized, is sacred.

IF THE RIGHT to "free" reading is inviolable, must not the same right apply in listening to music of one's own choice, without having it doctored to conform with a certain philosophy? What is the

Letters To The Editor

An Ugly Threat

Editor's Note — The following letter and the threat referred to by our correspondent illustrate an ugly aspect of "desegregation". This sort of thing is becoming increasingly common in northern urban cities of large Negro population.

Dear Editor:

You realize that mail is being delivered to my new home address, especially mail coming from Assn. of Citizens' Councils of Mississippi, Greenwood, Miss. — by Negro mailmen. These new Negro mailmen do not forget to whom they are delivering such mail. Information I have received regarding mail men, discloses that they would sometime scribble the symbol of death—"Skull and 2 bones" on the back of the envelope.

You understand I am very much interested in receiving literature from the Citizens' Councils in Greenwood, but, in view of the unmistakably threatening letter attached, I question the wisdom of letting these colored mailmen know my new address,—an address which for the present is not listed in the telephone book.

Do you think the literature from Greenwood can come to me on a plain white envelope, and perhaps through a third party, to avoid my identity during this "hot" period? If the "Black Sultans" can too easily find where I am living, the chances of "making good" their threatened punishment to me may be facilitated.

With best wishes I, remain

(Copy of letter received June 5, 1956, envelope postmarked May 31, 1956 by our above correspondent.)

Mr. "THE BLACK SULTANS" is an organization from whom you shall receive some very personal attention; if you do not cease and desist in your racial hate-mongering. Your intemperate remarks have attracted our ears and we feel that an object lesson in behaviorism is overdue YOU. As for the overt threat of Citizens' Councils—YOU will not be among those present . . . since you already are a marked man. Many negroes feel that the N.A.A.C.P.'s tactics are entirely too slow, and devoid of teeth. "THE BLACK SULTANS" propose to take a different type of action towards race-baiting, prejudiced SCUM like yourself. Remember YOU are our quarry, BE PREPARED!! the hour of punishment draweth near.

"Back To Africa"

Dear Editor:

The enclosed matter relating to our Negroes who wish to migrate to Liberia is being sent to many weekly papers in the Southern States with the hope that knowledge of this movement may reach white people who will favor it. White people in increasing numbers are giving support to this Cause just as soon as they learn of it. Senator George, it is believed, will grant a hearing to this Langer bill which would give aid to Negroes who desire to settle in Liberia.

In the enclosed you will see that I, a white man, have worked with Negro Nationalist leaders for a long time. These Negroes want a national home for themselves and their descent. They favor the Negro remaining a Negro and they have been powerfully opposed by the Mulatto led Negroes who wish to mix with the whites. The NAA CP has officially opposed the Langer bill.

White support for this measure is rapidly developing in the Midwest. A white organization in Illinois has sent the enclosed items to many weekly papers in the Southern Border States and certain Western States. A white organization in Missouri has taken up this good work and is sending information of it to many white people. A white organization in Iowa is keenly interested and sending out information. This white support has greatly en-difference between censoring books and censoring music?

Why does the strident voice of American "liberalism" righteously condemn "book burning" overseas, yet happily condone "song burning" here at home? This rather weird position indicates no small degree of inconsistency and hypocrisy. — The Clarion-Ledger, Jackson, Miss.)

couraged the Negro Nationalist groups.

Please get information of this Negro movement before your readers and urge them to ask their Senators to support this Langer bill. A letter to Senator George will increase his interest.

Press Hides Truth

Dear Editor:

Perhaps you may be interested in the enclosed newspaper clippings describing the recent terrorism aboard a Lake Erie steamer when Negro hoodlums mobbed whites. It would appear that the contrast in the accounting of this incident by the two leading Washington, D. C. papers clearly proves the contention of Representative Williams and your paper as to the policies of certain liberal, left-wing and integration — minded newspapers to withhold the true facts in such cases.

Both the Star and the Post credit the story to AP from Buffalo, N. Y., and it would be logical to assume that the later story appearing in the paper of the morning following the incident would have been in position to give a more complete account of what happened. Not so, however, in the Washington Post.

Also, you may not have seen the manner in which the Post featured the story on the same page dealing with Mrs. Barbara Marx. There seems to be no question but that the Post features news items of colored persons or of white persons mixed with colored whenever the opportunity presents itself in order to foster their own slanted side of the news.

If Representative Williams can get them to talk, he will find that the policemen on the beat in Washington can give him plenty of facts as to the difficulties encountered in Washington as a result of integrating the schools.

It is a well-known fact that box after box full of knives have been turned over to the police and in turn, disposed of "to headquarters" where no reports are ever made or publicized as to their existence, a fact which the teachers would substantiate too, if they were not afraid of pressures from higher-ups which might cost them their jobs.

There is a certain class of colored teen-agers in Washington today who recognizes no authority, police or otherwise, and they are taking over completely with no fear of court punishment or reprisal.

Reds In P. T. A. ?

Dear Editor:

We have no integration whatsoever here in Northern Kentucky. Dr. Donovan, president of University of Kentucky, let a few in but he has been asked to resign. This happened under Governor Weatherby, not Chandler.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction for Kentucky has been asked to resign.

Louisville tried integration. It was a horrible mess. Crime went up 50%. Dope and everything else — knives and fights. The Negroes and whites voted to have their own schools, own teachers and run their schools separately. I haven't seen anything in papers since (2 months ago) contrary to this voting and choosing. This is all NAACP's doings. Going from one State to another pretending that is the only state not wanting integration.

The Communists are running NAACP. Communists have infiltrated P.T.A. Walter Winchell told about Communist in headquarters Chicago P.T.A. about a month ago over radio. The National PTA headquarters in Chicago sends Communist workers out to live in different States to pull for integration. Southerners must get together and forbid NAA CP and communist P.T.A. and communist Teachers from operating in Southern States, also Communist thugs in labor unions.

We certainly don't want integration here in Kentucky. We are fighting it, both colored and white. Name withheld for her protection
Louisville, Ky.

P.S. Walter Winchell said the government has proof there were communist in P.T.A. Let Senator Eastland get the record for you.

Tail Wags The Dog- Negro Votes In A Few Key States Control Our Nation

A dark and sinister influence never anticipated by the Founding Fathers has been steadily seeping into our system of government over the past few decades. This is the dangerous and inordinate leverage exercised in national elections by the so-called minority bloc vote in key states, as indicated in shaded areas on U. S. Map below:

ELECTORAL VOTES AND POPULATION OF THE UNITED STATES
BASED ON THE OFFICIAL CENSUS OF 1950

THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE.
Electoral votes for each State determined as follows:
Number of members in House of Representatives, plus two Senators for each State.
Number of House members determined by Congress after official census every 10 years.

TOTAL ELECTORAL VOTES.....531

If ever there was a case of the tail wagging the dog, this is it. Listed here are the comparative electoral votes of the five Northern states and one Western state where that bloc vote can be, and often is, crucial in deciding elections where the Democratic and Republican parties are of relatively equal strength.

State	Electoral Vote	Percent Negro Population
Calif.	32	5
Ill.	27	7.4
Mich.	20	7
N. Y.	26	7
Ohio	25	6.4
Penn.	21	6
Total	151

These are the states where "civil rights" issues are agitated in shameless fashion by self-seeking politicians of both major parties in an all-out bid for the purchase of the bloc vote going to the highest bidder—regardless of the consequences to the rest of the country—and regardless of the consequences to the white people comprising 94% of the population in those very states.

By comparison, let us see how the situation stands in those states having massive race problems.

State	Electoral Vote	Percent Negro Population
Ala.	11	32
Ark.	8	22.4
Fla.	10	21.8
Ga.	12	31
La.	10	32
Miss.	8	45.2
N. C.	14	25.7
S. C.	8	39
Tenn.	11	16
Tex.	24	12.7
Va.	12	22
Total	126

Under our present rule of the candidate having a majority winning the entire electoral vote of a state, instead of the electors being elected on their merits and they electing the president as provided for originally under our constitution, it is easy to see that a Harlem negro's vote counts 5-5/8 times more than a vote in Mississippi.

Furthermore, the negro populations of the northern states are perhaps the most "segregated" racial group anywhere, in the sense that they are densely concentrated in a few all-negro districts in metropolitan centers. By contrast, the negro population of the southern states are mostly "integrated" in the sense that they are widely scattered in rural areas and small towns. The significance of this difference of distribution in social terms cannot be overstated.

Now let us not be misled by high-sounding terms like "civil rights." The Civil Rights Bills now the subject of such hot and heavy agitation in Congress are nothing less than a detailed blueprint for the whole coercive police power of the central government to be made available to the hatchet men of the NAACP for the enforcement of absolute white-negro integration.

It is thus apparent that political governed, in prize quality in individuals and in supporting Constitutional principles.

Resistance to legislation by judicial decree, Mr. Graves emphasizes, "doesn't mean 'gradualism' for us but law-abiding, non-violence, decency and intelligence in 'neverism.'"

COMPLIMENTS COUNCILS
Referring to the Citizens' Council movement, Mr. Graves pays high tribute to the quality of the membership. He writes, "Councils in Jackson, Mississippi and many Louisiana, South Carolina and Alabama centers read like Rotary Clubs for respectability."

He lists these reasons why the South resists integration:

(1) police necessity, (2) culture, and (3) biology. And we ask that the record show we don't mean (not any longer) injustice, discrimination, denial of franchise or other civil rights, legal or economic inequality—or hate. The hate is in Chicago, Detroit, Los Angeles and such.

As for integrated public schools, Mr. Graves declares:
"We are certain it would mean public disorder—at the schools, among parents, and throughout the community. We are certain, too, and cite the District of Columbia's experience, that it would mean cultural and scholastic debasement. . . .

"We believe that bloodshed or mixed blood or both would come if white and colored masses of the South were forced together as the NAACP proposes to force them under the Supreme Court mandate. And we believe both are bad. Is it contradictory to say there is a natural antipathy which would make a police problem of putting the races massively into the same Southern schools, and to say at the same time that putting them in those schools would mongrelize the South?"

In conclusion, Mr. Graves says, "The South doesn't expect the rest of the country, with its comparatively small Negro population, to agree. . . . He ends on the logical premise that Southerners can and will work out our own salvation by Constitutional means. Meanwhile, the title of his American Mercury unquestionably reflects overwhelming Southern sentiment.

"Look" Tells Negro Plight

Negroes, at 50 per cent above their original value."

'SUBTLE WHIP'
"And even where discrimination is prohibited by law, there is always the sidelong glance, the twisted neck, the cold look of distaste, the subtle — and effective — whip."

The Look article is a clear call for all-out integration. The attitude of the magazine — indeed of all integration advocates — shows up in two picture captions.

Here is a significant excerpt from a caption:

"Douglas Jackson (a Negro youth) lives in a Negro district of North Philadelphia; therefore, his school is all-Negro. It is not a bad school; but something is missing, something is out of tune."

What is out of tune? The clear implication is that whites are not present in young Jackson's environment as schoolmates, and that morality requires that they be.

When the youth group requested an appointment with Williams they were informed that the Congressman would see either the white or colored children but not in a mixed group.

ment as schoolmates, and that morality requires that they be.

A Negro tree surgeon is quoted as saying: "I work with white men. Years ago, that wouldn't have happened. We get along fine, but after work, we lead different lives. That isn't right."

The words "That isn't right" tell volumes about the integration drive. Clearly, the editors of Look share the Negro tree surgeon's attitude. — (News and Courier, Charleston, S. C.)

Hooray For John!

WASHINGTON—Congressman John Bell Williams of Mississippi recently refused to meet with a group of Negro and white teenagers to discuss the issue of integration.

Rep. Williams is the first known Representative to insist upon segregation in the capital of the nation.

When the youth group requested an appointment with Williams they were informed that the Congressman would see either the white or colored children but not in a mixed group.

Philbrick Tells Patriots

We're Losing Fight With Communism

By MARIE SMITH

Herbert A. Philbrick, former FBI counterspy on communism, declared recently that "there are more names of ministers than any other profession on the list of Communist supporters in this country" and called on the Daughters of the American Revolution to do something about it.

"Protest this to your religious leaders . . . If their name is on a list demand that they withdraw it or kick them out of your church organization," he told the more than 4000 Daughters attending the 65th Continental Congress at Constitution Hall.

Philbrick, who shared the speaker's spotlight on the DAR National Defense program with Admiral Arthur Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, said "we are losing the fight against communism."

"Communists are taking over the world at the rate of 1000 square miles a day and we people of the free world have not won back one single inch of that which we have lost," declared the man who for nine years led a double life as a Communist and undercover agent for the FBI.

Philbrick called on the DAR to continue its long-standing fight against communism by urging legislation in every state requiring that courses of communism be made mandatory in all public schools.

"Our children need to learn the hard cold facts of Soviet slave labor," he said and asked the DAR to insist also that "our churches as well as our schools teach the truth about Communism."

"Most of our church organizations are not bringing to our young people the truth about communism," he charged adding that they "are not doing a sufficiently good job in that area."

The American Association of University Professors which has headquarters here came in for a double-barrel attack on the DAR program.

Philbrick criticized it for its stand that "membership in the Communist criminal conspiracy is not sufficient ground for dismissal" of a school teacher.

Bar Takes Negroes

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The District of Columbia Bar Association has voted to take in qualified Negro lawyers.

The action was taken by voice vote at the association's regular May meeting, attended by more than 600 members recently. It came on a motion to delete the word "white" from the by-laws.

THREAT TO FREEDOM

Under the Genocide Convention of the United Nations, a person who, according to the UN's own standards, libels or injures the feelings of any member of a group or race may be charged with an attempt to exterminate that group and may be tried in a court of the UN's designation.

"Constitutions must be defended by the wisdom and fortitude of men. These qualities no Constitution can give. They are gifts of God, and He alone knows whether we shall possess such gifts at the time we stand in need of them." — Edmund Burke.

New York "Bias"

Except for public transportation, segregation is just as strong in New York City as any place in the South, said Hal Dumas, former president of Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, in Atlanta.

According to The Atlanta Journal, Dumas told the Atlanta Rotary Club that "They make a great effort to condemn segregation in the South but it (New York) is the most painfully racial and religious clique-minded town in existence." Dumas has been living in New York since 1951.

"I have never seen Negroes in many of the churches that talk down segregation," he said, "nor Negro society pictures in papers that support integration."
